

STANDING COMMITTEES

Achievement Awards Committee; monitor award requirements of WA Federation of Republican Women, (WFRW) and National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW).

Budget and Finance Committee; to prepare the yearly budget and to monitor it. CCRW Treasurer shall chair this committee.

Campaign Committee; development of campaign activities and reporting all campaign hours to the state president.

Chaplain Committee; provide prayer for meetings and for other opportunities or events.

Communication Committee; contact members and prospective members about upcoming meetings or events and desired action on legislation, and to prepare and distribute a bi-monthly newsletter.

Education Committee; organize affiliated campaign schools for candidates and campaign managers, facilitate constitutional classes and assist college age Republicans in establishing a "Young Republican Club" at local colleges and universities in SW Washington.

Events Committee; oversee planning and implementation of activities and meetings which meet the goals of CCRW, WFRW and NFRW.

Legislation Committee; report on current local, state and federal legislation at meetings and in the newsletter.

Membership Committee; oversee membership recruitment and retention. CCRW Secretary shall chair this committee.

Ways & Means Committee; raise money as needed for activities.

Join a CCRW Committee Today!

For more information about joining a CCRW Standing Committee, please send an email to CCRWClubInfo@gmail.com.